

Edwin Murdaugh

July 25, 1942 - June 25, 2012

Edwin Lloyd Murdaugh, a resident of San Bernardino for 62 years. Edwin was born in Los Angeles, California on July 25, 1942 and died of Cancer on June 25, 2012.

He is preceded in death by his father, Thomas Lloyd Murdaugh, mother, Violet Murdaugh, and sister, Madeline Sherry. He is survived by sisters, Mary Johnson and Barbara Tipton, and 37 nieces and nephews.

Edwin was in the Army from 1964 – 1967 and was in the Army Reserves for 8 additional years. He served in Vietnam. He worked as a Miner, for Libby Cup for approximately 28 years, operating machinery and as a Security Guard before retiring in 2008.

He was a Christian man. John and Revelations were his favorite books of the bible. He enjoyed hunting and fishing, music – Gospel, Polka, country, classical and Scottish songs. Edwin was so kind. He would not go to someone without a smile and a “Howdy”. He was very proud of his Scottish Heritage and was a member of the McPherson Clan. He was a prankster. He enjoyed watching the news and keeping up with the Stock Market. He was a Republican! He knew a lot about cars, engines, electronics and stereo equipment. He loved the desert in the spring. Edwin was an avid guns man and a member of the Gun and Rifle Association. He was very concerned that Americans not lose their civil rights and their right to bare arms.

Edwin Lloyd Murdaugh was a wonderful, caring person; he was loved by his family and those he met. He will certainly be missed. However, he is in a better place – he is with the Lord and Savior and will greet us there someday.

“ Edwin was my brother-in-law. My wife Madeline and Edwin were not only brother and sister, they were best friends. Edwin was a very kind person. He never married, always a bachelor
Edwin, Madeline and myself enjoyed going exploring together. We took long and short trips exploring ghost towns, old mines and just having fun in the desert.
